

Company Photovoltaic Panel Scam

How do I know if a solar salesperson is fraudulent?

Select one of our top three recommendations from the panel below to get started on your solar journey safely: High-pressure sales tactics, exaggerated promises and claims of "free" solar panels are three major red flags to look out for when determining if a solar salesperson is fraudulent or misleading.

How do I report a Solar scam?

File a police report. Fraud, scams, and identity theft are serious crimes that should be reported to the police immediately. Contact local law enforcement and file a police report if you've lost personal information to an American solar scam call or other phone scam. How do these scams affect the solar industry?

Are solar energy scam calls dangerous?

Solar energy scam calls can be dangerous, and falling victim to one can bring about severe consequences like financial fraud and identity theft. The good news is that there are ways to spot a scam and get out of it unscathed. Since phone scams often use the same tactics, it stands to reason that they come with many of the same warning signs.

The scams vary, but here's the gist: someone claiming to be with the government or your utility company promises big savings on your utility bills from solar energy or other home improvements designed to increase energy efficiency. If you ...
