

Who is responsible for the development of upper Yellow River hydropower project?

Upper Yellow River Hydropower Development Company is responsible for the development of the power project. State Power Investment Group Company (94.17%), Gansu Electric Power Investment Group (3.47%), and Shaanxi Hydropower Development Company (2.36%) are the stakeholders in the project.

Who owns the Yellow River Yangqu project?

State Power Investment Group Company (94.17%), Gansu Electric Power Investment Group (3.47%), Shaanxi Hydropower Development Company (2.36%) The Yellow River Yangqu project is a 1.2GW run-of-the-river hydroelectric power station under construction in the Qinghai province, China, with an estimated total investment of RMB 2.03bn ($2.53bn).

How much power will the Yellow River Yangqu hydropower station produce?

The left auxiliary dam will be constructed as a concrete gravity dam with a height of 41m. The Yellow River Yangqu hydropower station will feature three 400MW Francis turbine generator units, which are designed to deliver a total power output of 1.2GW.

Contact us for free full report

Web: <https://www.publishers-right.eu/contact-us/>

Email: energystorage2000@gmail.com

WhatsApp: 8613816583346

